

Foreword	11
Editor's Note	13
Introduction	15
Part I Governance Networks: Theoretical Foundations	17
1 The Emergence of Governance Networks: Historical Context, Contemporary Trends, and Considerations	9
2 Defining the Governance Network as a Unit of Analysis	50
3 The Actors within Governance Networks	73
4 The Ties between Actors	111
5 Network Level Functions	143
6 Network Level Structures	163
7 Governance Networks as Complex Adaptive Systems	211
8 How Are Governance Networks Managed?	251
9 The Hybridized Accountability Regimes of Governance Networks	301
Part II Governance Network Performance Management and Measurement	357

Contents

List of Figures	xii
List of Tables	xiv
About the Authors	xvii
Preface to the New Edition	xx
Preface to the First Edition	xxiii
Introduction: Why Governance Networks?	1
1 The Emergence of Governance Networks: Historical Context, Contemporary Trends, and Considerations	9
2 Defining the Governance Network as a Unit of Analysis	50
3 The Actors within Governance Networks	73
4 The Ties between Actors	111
5 Network Level Functions	143
6 Network Level Structures	163
7 Governance Networks as Complex Adaptive Systems	211
8 How Are Governance Networks Managed?	251
9 The Hybridized Accountability Regimes of Governance Networks	301
10 Governance Network Performance Management and Measurement	357

11 Meso Level Theories for Governance Network Analysis	399
12 Governance Networks Analysis: Implications for Practice, Education, and Research	419
13 Postscript: The Case for Stronger Democratic Anchorage in Governance Networks	437
Bibliography	442
Index	479
viii
ix
xii
xx
xxii
I Introduction: What Governance Networks	1
1 The Emergence of Governance Networks: Historical Course Continguous Links and Configuration	3
2 Defining the Governance Networks as a Link to Analysis	30
3 The Actor Within Governance Networks	53
4 The Two Power Actors	111
5 Micro-Level Functions	143
6 Micro-Level Structures	163
7 Governance Networks as Collective Intelligence Systems	211
8 How Are Governance Networks Managed	221
9 The Hybridized Accountability Realities of Governance Networks	261
10 Governance Networks: A Future Governance Architecture and Perspective	301