

Contents

Foreword – F. Brian Davy	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xii
List of Figures	xiii
List of Boxes	xiv
List of Tables	xvii
PART I INTRODUCTION	1
1. Why This Handbook?	3
1.1. What This Handbook Is	4
1.2. What This Handbook Isn't	5
1.3. Who This Handbook is For	5
1.4. Using This Handbook	6
2. What is Community-based Co-management?	7
2.1. Co-management Defined	7
2.2. Co-management as a Process	10
2.3. Stakeholder Involvement	11
2.4. Equity and Social Justice	12
2.5. Co-management and Common Property	12
2.6. Institutional Arrangements and Collective Action	13
2.7. Community-based Management	16
2.8. CBM and Co-management	18
2.9. Advantages and Disadvantages	19
3. What is a Process for Community-based Co-management?	22
3.1. A Process of Community-based Co-management	23
3.1.1. 'Beginnings' or pre-implementation	25
3.1.2. Implementation	26
3.1.3. 'Turnover' or post-implementation	31
3.2. Doing It	32
4. Who are You and What is Your Role in Community-based Co-management?	33
4.1. Stakeholders	33
4.2. Stakeholders in Community-based Co-management	34
4.2.1. Resource users	35

4.2.2. Government	36
4.2.3. Other stakeholders	39
4.2.4. Change agents	40
PART II PRE-IMPLEMENTATION	43
5. 'Beginnings' or Pre-implementation	45
5.1. External and Internal Beginnings	46
5.1.1. External beginnings	47
5.1.2. Internal beginnings	51
5.2. Problem Recognition and Consensus	52
5.3. Taking Action	53
5.4. Information	53
5.5. Community Meetings and Discussion	54
5.6. Assessing the Need, Feasibility and Suitability of Co-management	55
5.7. Preliminary Plan and Strategy	57
5.8. Seeking Funding	58
5.9. Approvals	59
5.10. Linkages	59
5.11. Moving to Implementation	59
PART III IMPLEMENTATION	61
6. Community Entry and Integration	63
6.1. The Community Organizer	65
6.2. Integration	69
6.2.1. Courtesy call	70
6.2.2. Community meetings	71
6.2.3. Key informants	73
6.2.4. Preliminary community profile	73
6.2.5. Area boundaries and management unit	75
6.2.6. Problems, needs and opportunities identification	77
6.2.7. Identify potential leaders	79
6.2.8. Assessing existing organizations	83
6.2.9. Formation of core groups	84
6.2.10. Identifying stakeholders	86
6.2.11. Workplan	90
7. Research and Participatory Research	92
7.1. Participatory Research	94
7.2. Indigenous Knowledge	101
7.3. Gender	104
7.4. Community Profile	105
7.4.1. Preparation	106
7.4.2. Secondary data	108
7.4.3. Reconnaissance survey	109
7.4.4. Planning of the field data collection	109
7.4.5. Resource and ecological assessment	110
7.4.6. Socio-economic assessment	114
7.4.7. Legal and institutional assessment	118
7.4.8. Problems, needs and opportunities assessment	121
7.4.9. Field analysis	121
7.4.10. Final data analysis	122

7.4.11. Validation	123
7.4.12. Final report	124
8. Environmental Education, Capacity Development and Social Communication	126
8.1. Environmental Education, Capacity Development and Social Communication	126
8.2. ECB Activities	128
8.3. Environmental Education	129
8.3.1. The environmental education plan	131
8.3.2. Entry level approaches	134
8.3.3. Training	135
8.3.4. Trainers' training	137
8.3.5. Guidelines for training	138
8.3.6. Other methods for environmental education	141
8.4. Capacity Development	143
8.4.1. Levels of capacity development	144
8.4.2. Approaches to capacity development	146
8.4.3. Strategic management	147
8.4.4. Evaluation	147
8.5. Social Communication	148
8.5.1. Social marketing	150
8.5.2. Communication	151
9. Community Organizing	152
9.1. Components of Community Organizing	154
9.2. Preparation	155
9.2.1. Leadership	158
9.3. Mobilization	159
9.4. Strengthening	162
9.5. Evaluation	163
10. Co-management Plan and Agreement	164
10.1. Adaptive Management	166
10.2. Preparing for the Planning Process	168
10.3. Establish a Co-management Body	171
10.4. Agreeing on Rules and Procedures for Negotiation	172
10.5. Meetings to Review the Situation and Develop Priority Issues	173
10.6. Developing a Mission Statement	174
10.7. Establishing the Management Unit	177
10.8. Negotiating Co-management Plans and Agreements	178
10.9. Co-management Plan – Goals, Objectives, Activities	179
10.10. Evaluation and Monitoring Plan	185
10.10.1. Evaluation	185
10.10.2. Monitoring plan	187
10.11. The Co-management Agreement	190
10.12. The Co-management Organization	191
10.13. Revenue Generation and Financing	194
10.14. Legal and Policy Support	196
10.15. Publicizing	197

11. Conflict Management	198
11.1. Conflict Assessment	201
11.2. Typology of Conflicts	202
11.3. Approaches to Conflict Management	203
11.4. Selecting an Approach	204
11.5. A Process of Conflict Management	206
11.6. Conditions for Conflict Management	209
12. Co-management Plan Implementation	211
12.1. Setting to Work	213
12.2. Management Measures	213
12.2.1. Traditional measures	214
12.2.2. Conventional and new fisheries management	214
12.2.3. Rights-based fisheries	215
12.2.4. Ecosystem-based measures	218
12.2.5. Habitat restoration, creation and enhancement	220
12.2.6. Restocking and introductions	221
12.2.7. People-focused measures	221
12.2.8. Public education	221
12.2.9. Managing excess fishing capacity	222
12.3. Community and Economic Development and Livelihoods	223
12.4. Enforcement and Compliance	225
12.5. Monitoring	227
12.6. Annual Evaluation, Workplan and Budgeting	228
12.7. Networking and Advocacy	229
PART IV POST-IMPLEMENTATION	231
13. 'Turnover' or Post-implementation	233
13.1. Turnover and Phase-out	234
13.2. Post-evaluation	234
13.3. Scaling up	234
13.4. Replication and Extension	236
13.5. Sustainability	237
PART V CONCLUSION	239
14. Making It Happen!	241
References	243
Index	253