

Contents

1	Economic Transformation and Development Experience of Indian Punjab—An Introduction	1
	Lakhwinder Singh and Nirvikar Singh
Part I Understanding the Crisis of Agrarian Transition
2	The Role of Technological and Institutional Changes in the Growth and Transformation of Agriculture in Punjab	29
	K.N. Nair and Gurpreet Singh
3	Growth Pattern and Economic Impacts of Wheat Productivity on Punjab Agriculture	53
	R.S. Sidhu, Kamal Vatta and Shayequa Zeenat Ali
4	Rethinking Diversification of Agriculture in the Indian Punjab: An Examination of Strategy and Mechanisms	77
	Sukhpal Singh
5	Groundwater Irrigation in Punjab: Some Issues and a Way Forward	97
	Rita Pandey
Part II Agrarian Markets and Distributive Outcomes
6	Growth of Cash Rent Tenancy and Modernisation of Land Lease Market in Punjab	121
	H.S. Shergill
7	Marketing System and Agricultural Development in Punjab	141
	M.S. Sidhu
8	Agricultural Credit in Punjab: Have Policy Initiatives Made a Dent in Informal Credit Markets?	165
	Anita Gill

9	Imperfect Information and Contract Enforcement in Informal Credit Market in Rural Punjab	183
	Indervir Singh
10	Household Income Inequality and Asset Distribution: The Case of Rural Punjab	215
	Kamal Vatta and S. Pavithra
Part III Structural Transformation of Punjab Economy: Emergence of Industry and Services
11	Growth, Employment and Structural Change: Punjab Versus 16 Major States of India	229
	Aradhna Aggarwal
12	Manufacturing Sector in Punjab: Evolution, Growth Dynamism, Key Concerns and Rejuvenation Strategy	251
	Varinder Jain
13	Service Sector and Economic Growth in Punjab	273
	Inderjeet Singh
Part IV Human Development in Punjab's Economic Transformation
14	Critical Evaluation of Educational Development in Punjab	291
	Jaswinder Singh Brar
15	Economic Development and Emerging Health Scenario in Punjab: A Need for State Support and Accountability	313
	Sukhwinder Singh
Part V External Factors in Punjab's Economic Development
16	Unpacking the "Diaspora-Development" Mantra: Does Punjabi Diaspora Have the Potential to Contribute to the Rejuvenation of Punjab's Economy?	339
	Shinder S. Thandi
17	How Centre-State Relations Have Shaped Punjab's Development Pattern	367
	Pritam Singh
Part VI Fiscal Policy of Punjab in Comparative Perspective
18	Public Finances and Development: The Case of Punjab	393
	Tapas K. Sen

19 Strategy for Fiscal Stability and Revitalizing the Economy of Punjab	411
Upinder Sahwney
Part VII Perspectives on Rejuvenation of Punjab Economy
20 Peasant Movement and Rejuvenation of Punjab's Economy	437
Sucha Singh Gill
21 Breaking the Mould: Thoughts on Punjab's Future Economic Development	451
Nirvikar Singh
Index	467

About the Editors

Lalwinder Singh is a Professor at the Department of Economics, Centre for Development Economics and Innovation Studies (CEIS), Punjabi University, India. Prior to this, he has been a faculty at the University of Delhi and National Institute of Public Finance and Policy, New Delhi. He has been a Ford Foundation Post-Doctoral Fellow in Economics at Yale University, USA and a Visiting Research Fellow, Seoul National University, South Korea. He has been awarded Asia Fellowship by the Institute of International Education, New York, 2001. His current research focuses on the national innovation system, international knowledge spillovers, patterns of development, globalization and agrarian distress in developing economies. Apart from publishing a number of research papers in journals of national and international repute, he is also the founding editor of the journal Millennial Asia: An International Journal of Asian Studies, published by Sage Publications and Association of Asia Scholars. He has co-edited the books Economic and Environmental Sustainability of the Asian Region (Routledge, 2009) and Technology, Innovations and Economic Development: Essays in Honour of Robert E. Evenson (Sage Publishers, 2013).

Nirvikar Singh is a Distinguished Professor of Economics and Sarahila Singh Aggarwal Chair of Sikh and Punjab Studies at the University of California, Santa Cruz, where he is also the Director of the Centre for Analytical Finance. He is a member of the Advisory Group to the Finance Minister of India on G-20 matters, and has served as a consultant to the Chief Economic Adviser, Ministry of Finance, Government of India. His current research interests include entrepreneurship, information technology and development, business strategy, political economy, federalism and economic growth. He has authored over 100 research papers, including several on the East Asian and Indian economy and co-authored or edited four books, the most recent being The Oxford Handbook of the Economics of the Pacific Rim (Oxford University Press, 2014). He has also served as an advisor for several start-up and knowledge services firms in Silicon Valley and in India.